

Team Expectations Agreement

- Methods of communication
 - Our primary method of communication will be on our Discord channel
- Communication Response Times
 - All team members are expected to respond to Discord messages within 24 hours
- Meeting Attendance
 - All team members are expected to show up to meetings, whether it be in-person or online
- Running Meetings
 - Stand up meetings will be run in the CSCC01 server discord
- Meeting preparation
 - Every member should be clear on what they have accomplished since the previous meeting, and other issues/difficulties etc.
- Version Control
 - Prior to committing, group members should make sure that the code is able to be run on their local environment.
 - At least 2 members should have reviewed the code before merging onto the main branch.
- Division of Work
 - Work will be divided equally amongst all members, under everyone's agreement
- Submitting assignments
 - Ideally, work will be submitted at least 24 hours before the deadline, and everyone should have reviewed the work before submission.
- Contingency planning
 - If someone drops out, consistently misses meetings or is academically dishonest, the team will seek help from the instructor.
